Other Important Information

For the 2019-20 school year, chronic absenteeism calculations were based only on school days when students were expected to attend school in person. Attendance during continued educational opportunities (i.e., remote instruction days) was not included in these calculations.

Students who were first enrolled after classes were canceled due to COVID-19 were included in the all student count (denominator) for a district or school, but were not evaluated for chronically absent status. The inclusion of these students in the denominator will not adversely affect a district or school's chronic absenteeism rate.
