Introduction

The purpose of this document is to briefly describe the policies, procedures, and data systems for reporting and tracking student exits from Connecticut public schools. This document also provides some preliminary data trends of student exit from the public school system.

Pursuant to Connecticut General Statutes Section 10-10(a), the Connecticut State Department of Education (CSDE) implements the Public School Information System (PSIS) Registration system. All public school districts report, through PSIS Registration, the entry and exit of every student in their school systems. Every student receives a unique state-assigned student identifier (SASID) upon their first- ever entry into any Connecticut public school. This enables PSIS Registration to track the same student over multiple years and across districts/schools.

When a student enters or leaves their district, the district must report:

- Entry and exit dates;
- Attendance data (days enrolled vs. days present); and
- Exit types and statuses (e.g., transfer, dropout, graduation).

This information is critical for monitoring chronic absenteeism and truancy, ensuring accurate statewide reporting and accountability, and supporting smooth transitions when students change schools.

The 2024-25 PSIS Reference Guide provides guidance for reporting student-level data to PSIS Registration. This guide is reviewed and updated annually to reflect current policies, procedures, and reporting requirements. Such student-level reporting helps to safeguard every student's opportunity to stay connected to school, continue their education, and graduate high school.

Reasons for Leaving Connecticut Public Schools

Students may leave public school for a variety of reasons. The 20+ exit types in PSIS Registration \(see Table N\) can be grouped broadly into the following categories. The individual exit types included are listed under each category:

Each exit category along with the documentation requirements, the CSDE policy expectations, and the CSDE follow-up procedures are described below.

Special Circumstances

- Students on extended travel outside of state or country are advised to not be unenrolled from school.
- Students who are 18 but under 21 years of age are required to execute a signed withdrawal form in-person at the district office. This form must include the attestation from a school counselor, school administrator, or guidance counselor confirming provision of educational options in the school system and community. If there is no withdrawal form, these students cannot be exited in PSIS. No confirmation of adult education enrollment is required.
- Kindergarten students under the age of 7 who already started school may be withdrawn from school by the parent/guardian. To exercise such “option” per C.G.S. Section 10-184, the parent/guardian shall personally appear at the school district and sign an option form. The district shall provide the parent or person with information on the educational opportunities available in the school system.
- For English learner/multilingual learners, all policies, forms, and guidance documents must be in the family’s home language as described in the Parent Bill of Rights for English Learners/Multilingual Learners.

Data Sources and Caveats

Snapshots vs Running Records

Typically, most CSDE data are based on snapshots. A snapshot of data is a representation of what was true on a given day. For example, the CSDE's enrollment snapshot that serves as the official count of student enrollment and used for all funding calculations is based on what was true on October 1. It is referred to as the October PSIS Collection wherein the "Collection" indicates that it is a snapshot. A similar October 1 snapshot is also used for staffing data. Another snapshot of student enrollment is the June snapshot that is intended to be what was true on the last day of school. This snapshot is called the June PSIS Collection.

Snapshots are more easily understood for purposes of communication, analyses, and reporting because the data do not change. For example, once the October or June PSIS Collections are "frozen" and published on EdSight, those numbers do not change.

Students, however, enter and exit public schools daily up to and after the October collection, and until the last day of the school year. The PSIS Registration system serves as the real-time 24/7 "running record" of student entry and exit. Districts are expected to keep PSIS Registration updated on at least a weekly basis. Therefore, the data in PSIS Registration will change every day. An analysis conducted on one day will yield slightly different results if repeated on a subsequent day.

Important Caveats

There is no formal certification of the data for PSIS Registration by the district since these data are updated regularly by district staff as new information becomes available to them daily. Note that the PSIS Collections do require district administrator certification, as do almost all other CSDE snapshot collections.

These analyses were conducted on PSIS Registration data as of April 7, 2025. Therefore, it will not be possible to replicate and match these results with any future analysis because the underlying data are constantly being updated by districts (e.g., a student who previously exited CT public schools could re-enroll and would no longer be considered as someone who exited in this analysis). These data will also not match any other report or prior analysis published by the CSDE.

This analysis includes all registrations, regardless of the length or timing of the registration. If a parent enrolled their child at the beginning of the summer with the intent to start schooling in the fall but later decided to send their child to private school, that exit is included, even though the child never set foot in the public school.

CSDE has no data to estimate the count of students who have been home schooled for their entire life because they were never registered in PSIS Registration.

While CSDE collects aggregate data of non-public school enrollment, there is no data on how many of those students were previously enrolled in public school.

Years of Analysis and Records Included

This analysis includes all students who were enrolled in public school as evidenced in PSIS Registration for any length of time between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2024. Student exits are also based on the PSIS Registration system. Only the students who exited with an exit date in PSIS Registration between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2024, inclusive, and never re-enrolled in a Connecticut public school as of April 7, 2025 (i.e., the last record in PSIS Registration was an exit) are considered as having exited in this analysis. For example, a student who left CT public schools to attend private school in September 2021, but re-enrolled in August 2024, would not be considered to have exited public school for this analysis.

Preliminary Findings

As expected, the number of students enrolled anytime in the year is greater than the number enrolled on a given date(s). Table 1 contrasts three student enrollment counts:

1. the unduplicated counts of students in the official enrollment count reported in October PSIS;
2. the unduplicated count of students enrolled in either the October or the June PSIS Collections; and
3. the unduplicated count of students enrolled at any point in the school year based on PSIS Registration.

Table 1: Three Views of Enrollment

Period	October PSIS enrollment (reported on the EdSight Enrollment Dashboard )	Total Enrolled in the October or June PSIS Collections (reported on the EdSight Homeless Dashboard )	Total Enrolled at any point during the school year
2021-22 (July 1 2021 to June 30 2022)	513,615	528,230	541,377
2022-23 (July 1 2022 to June 30 2023)	513,513	527,568	538,286
2023-24 (July 1 2023 to June 30 2024)	512,652	527,197	537,660

The total number of students who were enrolled at any point during the year for any length shows the largest count; it is about 5% greater than the official enrollment count from the October PSIS Collection. These counts represent the unduplicated count of students enrolled in a given fiscal year.

Students exit the public school system for a variety of reasons (Table 2). Annually, among all the students enrolled in public school anytime during the year for any length:

- Approximately 7% (around 38,000 students) or around two-thirds of all students who exited, graduated with a regular high school diploma; and
- Approximately 2% (around 11,000 students) or around 20% of all students who exited, moved out of Connecticut either to another state or country.

In other words, more than 8 out of 10 students who exit either graduated high school with a regular high school diploma or moved out of Connecticut.

Other reasons why students exit the public school system (Table 2) include exit without earning a K-12 credential, transfer to a Connecticut private school, or transfer to homeschooling. Specifically:

- A little over 0.5% (around 3,500 students) exit to a Connecticut private school annually and about 11% of them had been identified for special education prior to their exit;
- Less than 0.5% (around 1,800 students) exit to homeschooling annually and about 22% of them had been identified for special education prior to their exit; and
- A little over 0.5% (over 3,000 students) exit annually without earning a K-12 credential because they transferred to adult education, aged out of public school, or withdrew/disengaged from public school, and about 29% of them had been identified for special education prior to their exit.

The percentage of students exiting annually for each of the reasons in Table 2 has remained relatively stable over the past three years.

Some students are counted as having exited the public school for other reasons. Of the thousands of students who transfer annually between public schools, approximately 100-200 students never registered with the new school. Fewer than 100 students in 2023-24 exited with an alternate credential. Sadly, over this three-year period 252 students were reported to have died.

A further breakout of the students who Exit K-12 Schooling without Credential (Table 3) reveals that about one-third of those students are reported as transferred to adult education to pursue an adult education diploma, another one-third are reported as having discontinued their schooling, and about a quarter were reported by districts as having moved because the district could not confirm residency in town after having made reasonable efforts to locate the student.

Exit Type	2021-22	2022-23	2023-24
Transfer to Adult Education (AHSCDP, GED, or NEDP)	1,141 (0.2%)	1,214 (0.2%)	1,333 (0.2%)
Discontinued Schooling	1,357 (0.3%)	1,298 (0.2%)	1,031 (0.2%)
Moved, not known to be continuing	1,114 (0.2%)	888 (0.2%)	752 (0.1%)
Other Reasons	58 (0.0%)	57 (0.0%)	27 (0.0%)
Total Exit K-12 Schooling without Credential	3,670 (0.7%)	3,457 (0.6%)	3,143 (0.6%)

Fewer than 60 students annually exit for “other reasons”; most of them have either reached the maximum age for public school services (i.e., their 22nd birthday) or enrolled in postsecondary education without earning a high school diploma.

The students who had left K-12 schooling without a credential across the three years is further disaggregated by age (Table 3a). Of the 10,128 students across the three-year period who exited K-12 schooling without a credential (Table 3a), 1,095 students (10.8%) were under 7 years of age and another 4,864 students (48.0%) were 18 years of age or older at the time of exit from public school. In total, 2,855 students (28.2%) of the 10,128 students had been identified for special education prior to their exit.

Table 3a: Total Number of Students Exiting K-12 Schooling without Credential Between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2024 by the Age at Time of Exit

Exit Type	Total	Age at Time of Exit					% Special Education
		Under 7	7 to 15	16	17	18 or older

*This represents students who exited until June 30, 2023. Prior to July 1, 2023, the parent or guardian of a 17-year-old could withdraw their child from public school without having to enroll their child in adult education. After July 1, 2023, no 17-year-old is assigned an exit of Discontinued Schooling.

**The “Other Reasons” category is excluded from this table to protect student confidentiality. Almost all the students in that group were aged 22 at exit and had reached maximum age for public school services.

Of the 3,686 students across the three-year period who were reported as having “Discontinued Schooling”, 782 students (21.2%) were under 7 years of age at the time of exit from public school and 1,132 (30.7%) had been identified for special education prior to their exit. Per Connecticut General Statutes 10-184, a parent/guardian has the option to not have their child attend public school until the child turns 7.

The overall percentages of students exiting public school for home schooling (~0.3%) or without earning a credential who are also not enrolled in adult education (~0.4%) are low but represent thousands of students who may no longer be observed by a public school.

It should also be noted that the reason for withdrawal from school that is reported in PSIS Registration at the time of exit may not remain true after exit. For example, a parent who indicates withdrawal for homeschooling may subsequently enroll their child in a private school or vice versa. Such changes would likely not be known to the school district and thus are not captured in PSIS Registration. Data for the four exit categories of Exit K-12 Schooling without credential, Move out of CT, Transfer to a CT private school, and Transfer to home schooling for each school district for each of the past three years is included in the Appendix.

Conclusion

The PSIS Registration system enables the CSDE to track the enrollment and exit of students at any point during the year. Over the years, the CSDE has developed and refined its guidelines, policy expectations, and supports for school districts when students exit the public school system. This has increased awareness and brought about more consistent and rigorous practices for following up with disengaged students, and accurately documenting student exits.

The data in this report are the first comprehensive analysis of exit data from the PSIS Registration system. They show that:

- the total number of students who were enrolled at any point during the year for any length is about 5% greater than the official enrollment count from the October PSIS Collection;
- over 8 out of 10 students who exit public school either graduated with a regular high school diploma or moved out of Connecticut;
- around 1 out of every 100 students enrolled annually exit to go to private school or be homeschooled;
- less than 1 percent of all students annually exit without earning a credential – a third of them exit to attend adult education.

The overall percentages of students exiting public school for home schooling (~0.3%) or without earning a credential who are also not enrolled in adult education (~0.4%) are low but represent thousands of students who may no longer be observed by a public school. Additionally, since students’ educational choices could change from the reason designated at the time of exit from public school, implementing follow up procedures for students who have exited may require significantly more resources than might be expected if only focusing on specific student exit types.

Though PSIS Registration already allows users to identify and track students, the CSDE is exploring the feasibility of adding another report in EdSight Secure with similar student-level exit information to allow school administrators and coordinators to track exiting students on a near real-time basis.
